PETITION FOR LEAVE TO WITHDRAW APPLICATIONS OF
ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Petitioner, the Illinois Department of Transportation ("IDOT"), pursuant to 49 C.F.R. 1117.1, seeks leave to withdraw its adverse discontinuance and abandonment applications. IDOT had sought the adverse discontinuance of service by the Union Pacific Railroad Company ("UP") and the adverse abandonment of the East St. Louis Junction Railroad Company ("ESLJ") over whose line UP heretofore has operated.¹ IDOT's filing was occasioned by the need for some of the land underlying ESLJ's line in connection with the relocation of Illinois Route 3, which runs roughly parallel to the Mississippi River in the vicinity of East St. Louis, IL. It now appears that the highway relocation can be accomplished without disturbing UP's operations on the line of the ESIJ, and, accordingly, the need for proceeding with the adverse discontinuance and abandonment proceedings has been obviated.

¹ UP is the successor in interest to Chicago and Northwestern Transportation Company, which leased the lines, pursuant to the Decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission in Finance Docket No. 27786, Chicago and Northwestern Transportation Company--Lease of Tracks and Operation of--The East St. Louis Junction Railroad Company in St. Clair County, Illinois, served February 13, 1975.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner, Illinois Department of Transportation, ask that it be allowed to withdraw its pending adverse discontinuance and abandonment applications.
